

Major in Spanish Circle

Program Name and Faculty: BA in Spanish (language, literature, and cultural studies), Modern Languages, and Faculty of Arts

Description	A BA degree in Spanish, with specialization in Language, Literature (Spanish American/Peninsular) and Culture
Rationale	Spanish is one of the most widespread language on the globe. Given the growing economic, political, and cultural ties between Canada, the U.S., Mexico, and the rest of Latin America, the Dept. of ML deems appropriate and timely to offer this Major.
Resources Required	The Dept. will need 2 faculty members to expose students to more areas of expertise: Peninsular Spanish and a generalist on Latin America (colonial, contemporary, cultural studies).
Earliest Implementation Date	September 2005
Priority	High
